Connect with timely and confidential counseling, explore filing a complaint, contact specially trained 24/7 emergency services, and learn about engaging interim measures — academic, workplace, housing, or other support services — to help you continue to participate in all aspects of the Harvard community.

Find Harvard University's Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment Policy at odr.harvard.edu.

View the Sexual Violence: Sexual Harassment brochure on the Title IX Office website.
Harvard University Resources: Here to Help You

If you are experiencing a life-threatening emergency, CALL 911 or 9-911 (from campus).

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SAFETY</th>
<th>MEDICAL</th>
<th>REPORT</th>
<th>SUPPORT</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>To address immediate safety concerns:</td>
<td>To address immediate medical concerns:</td>
<td>To learn about reporting options:</td>
<td>To find support services:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Office of Sexual Assault Prevention & Response (OSAPR)
24/7 confidential hotline at 617-495-9100

OSAPR offers confidentiality. They only share information you disclose at your request.

- Contact the hotline if you would like a staff member to accompany you to a medical facility.
- Learn about reporting options in a confidential setting.
- Talk with a trained counselor who can provide emotional support and experienced guidance in a confidential setting.

Harvard University Police Department (HUPD)
617-495-1212 (Cambridge) or 617-432-1212 (Longwood)

You are not obligated to file a police report if you choose to work with the HUPD.

- Speak with a specially trained officer of the Sensitive Crime Unit to gather information about the assault, to begin an investigation, or to explore criminal action.
- Ask an officer to transport you to the medical facility of your choice.
- Speak with a specially trained police officer and consider filing a police report.

Harvard University Health Services (HUHS)
617-495-5711

Contact for urgent medical care and recovery.

Harvard University Title IX Coordinators for Students at the College
Emily Miller | 617-496-3336 | emilymiller@fas.harvard.edu
Jeffrey Berg | 617-495-5050 | jmberg@fas.harvard.edu

- Learn about interim measures, such as housing, academic, or workplace adjustments. Discuss the informal or formal resolution process.
- Contact your School’s Title IX Coordinator to learn about the wide range of resources available to the community.

Title IX Coordinators for Students at the College
Emily Miller | 617-496-3336 | emilymiller@fas.harvard.edu
Jeffrey Berg | 617-495-5050 | jmberg@fas.harvard.edu

Additional Confidential Support Resources at Harvard College

- Response Peer Counseling
  617.495.9600 (8 p.m. to 8 a.m.)
- Bureau of Study Counsel
  617.495.2581 | bsc@harvard.edu

Office of BGLTQ Student Life
617.496.5716 | bgltq@fas.harvard.edu

University Title IX Office
Smith Campus Center 935
Mia Karvonides
Mia_Karvonides@harvard.edu
617-495-4134